

Nevermore

Ravenland

No grave can keep a hold
When my empty heart is cold
Cause her voice will call for me
And nevermore I will stay alone

Since the first time that our ways did cross
And everything around stopped in time

Like a siren on the rocks beach
A muse singing in the twilight
Like a mistress through the mist
You're the light in darkest nights

I cannot forget her eyes
Every night I scream without voice
And I raise the shades at night
A black raven comes inside

Since the first time that our ways did cross
And everything around stopped in time

We made it through the night
We stood across hard times
No one can say that we didn't try

When the night cover us again
And the ravens shows the way
There's no nothing to separate
The worlds between you and me

I always wait by nightfall
The rise and shining of the moon
Crossing an infinite fog I'll meet you
A crow will guide us tonight

The time may bury him deeper
But fate is too straight
When you will hear my voice
Calling you through of shades
