Ray Price

With someone else perhaps in time I'll find a little peace of m ind

And maybe someday I'll get over you

And if in time I hear your name it may be hard to bear the pain But I'll go to a stranger before I'll come to you

For a stranger might show a little sympathy

And that's so much more than you have ever done for me

And to turn away from you won't be an easy thing to do

But I'll go to a stranger before I'll come to you

For a stranger might show...

I'll go to a stranger before I'll come to you
