Ice cold love Your love is cold as ice cold I wish I knew someone To love me like I love you

This morning when you went away, I'm wondering dear If you're gonna stay away
I see a pretty rainbow
It reminds me I love you so

I remember dear
When your lips were warm as fire
You said, you love me so
But now it's awful cold the ice cold heart

This morning when you went away, I'm wondering dear If you're gonna stay away

It reminds me I love you so

I remember dear
When your lips were warm as fire
You said, you love me so
