Ramblin' Rose

Ray Price

Ramblin' rose, ramblin' rose
Why you ramble, no one knows
Wild and wind blown that's how you've grown
Who can cling to a ramblin' rose?

Ramble on, ramble on When you're ramblin' days are gone Who will love you with a love true When you're ramblin' days are gone?

Ramblin' rose, ramblin' rose
Why I want you, heaven knows
Though I love you with a love true
But who can cling to a ramblin' rose?

Ramblin' rose, ramblin' rose
Why I want you, heaven knows
Though I love you with a love true
But who can cling to a ramblin' rose?
