

Well, I'm Sorry

Real Friends

I can't fix everything around me
I can't make everybody happy
And it'll be okay

Show me how to be something other than nostalgic
I want to feel inspired and innocent again
I just want to be worth your time
Just let me be worth your time

Too much time spent overthinking
Yeah, I've spent too much time
Feeling like I should be sinking
I can't fix everything around me
(And it's okay)
I can't make everybody happy
(And it's okay)

Lately when I'm alone I keep thinking about the past
I'm trying to feel weak in my knees again
I want to stand up straight like when I graduated
I just want to be
Just let me be worth your time

Too much time spent overthinking
Yeah, I've spent too much time
Feeling like I should be sinking
I can't fix everything around me
(And it's okay)
I can't make everybody happy
(And it's okay)

Do you remember when you saw right through my selfish skin?
Do you remember when I ignored everything you did?
Well, I'm sorry
Well, I'm sorry
Well, I'm sorry
I'm sorry

Too much time spent overthinking
Yeah, I've spent too much time
Feeling like I should be sinking
I can't fix everything around me
(And it's okay)
I can't make everybody happy
(And it's okay)

I can't fix everything around me
(And it's okay)
I can't make everybody happy
It'll be okay
