

Sold

Reamonn

I want to set you free
I want to set you free

Sold, I said
Is how you treated me
And I've been fooled for too long
By all your misery

You said you'd meet me in the sky
We'd open up the night, I let you climb right in
You said you'd meet me in the sky
We'd open up the night, I let you climb right in
I let you climb right in

'Cause I'm just trying to let you know
That if you ever let me go
You lose control
You know I can't be sold

Count the cost of what you lost
Count the cost of what you lost

'Cause you've been cruel to me
The way you let me down
And I've been blind and deceived
Tried to stand your ground

You said you'd meet me in the sky
We'd open up the night, I let you climb right in
You said you'd meet me in the sky
We'd open up the night, I let you climb right in
I let you climb right in

'Cause I'm just trying to let you know
That if you ever let me go
You lose control
You know I can't be sold

I feel this world just rushing by Changing right before my eyes
All that glitters is not gold
And all that's precious can't be sold
It can't be sold

'Cause I'm just trying to let you know
That if you ever let me go
You lose control
You know I can't be sold

'Cause I'm just trying to let you know
That if you ever let me go
You lose control
You know I can't be sold
