Ride ride
Let the power take you way into the night
We were born to die
Ride ride
We were raised to lead the ordinary life
What a kind of life

Bad to the bone we ride a nightmare through your dreams Can't you feel the surge for freedom forget eternity The good die young we'll burn but never fade away There is a lust for destruction don't dream your life away

Hear the voices on the wind Start the engines the ride begins

Evil ride on

Thundering down the highway Born a rebel till the end Born a rebel till the end

Spewn outa hell we'll dance around your open grave No more broekn promises nothing left to save We all die young with demons riding on our back There is no golden paradise eternity is black

And when the end will come my friend There is nothing to complain I choose this life I took it all I'll be the only one to blame

But I shall still ride on the wind forevermore Within the storm you'll hear my voice I'll be the dust along road that you ride It was my life it was my choice

Born a rebel let the spirit never die Don't take their answers raise your hand Born a free man don't believe in all their lies Born a rebel till the end Born a rebel till the end
