

Lay My Claim

Rebelution

It's the truth I step into the night
Nah, Never made sense to me
Why some crave the limelight
It makes me wonder how I'm supposed to be
Could it be wrong to kick back and just write?

Now let the truth be told
Went in my zone
Learned from the finest techniques
Now let the truth be sold to you
Eyes on the goal
But you're moving too quick,
Don't speak

Don't speak just listen
No doubt gonna lay my claim
You put in work and just wait
And let it all unfold
Straight from the soul
Now I stick to my goal always

Damn right gonna lay my claim
Watch the whole world change
And let it all unfold
Straight from the soul
Gotta stick to my goal always

It's the truth I step into the night
Nah, never made sense to me
Why some choose the limelight
Imagine if they put in the time to seek
To find a talent and then watch it take flight

Well let the truth be told
Go to your zone
Learn from the finest techniques
Well let the truth be sold to you
Come to your own
But you're moving too quick
Don't speak

Don't speak just listen
No doubt gonna lay my claim
You put in work and just wait
And let it all unfold
Straight from the soul
Now I stick to my goal always

Damn right gonna lay my claim
Watch the whole world change
And let it all unfold
Straight from the soul
Gotta stick to my goal always

Feels right then it can't be wrong
Don't speak just listen
Feels right then it can't be wrong

Don't speak just listen
All in gotta keep my feel
Don't speak just listen
All in gotta keep things real

Don't speak just listen
No doubt gonna lay my claim
You put in work and just wait
And let it all unfold
Straight from the soul
Now I stick to my goal always

Damn right gotta lay my claim
Watch the whole world change
And let it all unfold Straight from the soul
Gotta stick to my goal always
Don't speak just listen
