

Every Step of the Way

Reckless Kelly

Pulled on my boots and I set out on that long walk home Late night I laid down with an angel but I woke up to find she was gone
I felt the sadness all around me on the sidewalk through the Monday morning rain
And it ruined my boots but it was worth every step of the way

And I can see a ray of sunlight breaking through the dark clouds surrounding me
And I can tell not every walk down easy street will land you on your feet alive and well
You never know just where the road is gonna leave you at the end of the day
But I can say it was worth every step of the way

Left my blues and my baggage just lying there tangled in the sheets
So I'll know just where to find 'em when my heavy heart is back on the streets
She put her cool lips to mine and she whispered baby maybe some day
And though her words left me wounded it was worth every step of the way

And I can see a ray of sunlight breaking through the dark clouds surrounding me
And I can tell not every walk down easy street will land you on your feet alive and well
You never know just where the road is gonna leave you at the end of the day
But I can say it was worth every step of the way
Yeah I can say it was worth every step of the way
