

Hot Rain

Reckless Love

Never meant to leave you waiting
I hate to see your heart is aching for mine
But it's breaking
Shots o' whiskey for the loneliness
Faith is fading every moment we go
Towards the unknown

Oh I feel your pain
I feel the same
It just won't fade away

I feel your hot rain
I feel your hot rain
Like burning hot rain
Your tears are burning me like a hot rain

You and me just had to stumble in love
And now I find myself without you
By my side
I remember every touch
And I still can feel the kiss you gave me goodbye
I hope you feel mine

If we meet again
The tears of pain
Will they fade away

I feel your hot rain
I feel your hot rain
Like burning hot rain
Your tears are burning me like a hot rain

I feel your hot rain
I feel your hot rain
Like burning hot rain
Your tears are burning me like a hot rain
I feel your hot rain

Baby, baby I feel your hot rain
Feel your hot rain
Feel your hot rain
Oh baby feel your, your hot rain
