

Distorted Eyes

Red Harvest

Distorted Eyes

You're not the first
Surely not the last
To believe you have the answers
And are dead wrong

The static link
Between everything
Is that no one knows
Anything

Distorted Eyes
Can't see beyond
The lies that cloud the future

The clock is ticking
And when the hammer falls
It's gonna hurt

Distorted Eyes
Can't see beyond
The lies that cloud the future

The lies that cloud the future

Cherish the dark
In a ring of fire
Reach for the unknown
As the pages turn
Cherish the dark
In a ring of fire
