Where have all the people gone in my life I'm looking at the ceiling with An awful feeling of loss and of loneliness The after late night television pain I'm running out of strength I'm running, running, running out of strength And it feels so wonderful to swim in our fears And divide inseparable, the awakening of life Oh, Uncle Joe Could you tell me about what you know? Of being having mental problems And their solutions too I'll give anything a try once I'll try anything three times I don't care, I don't care I don't care, I don't care But there's no company That can stand to be with me So my dependency on you grows And I am not very well read And consider I will lose my heart And can you spare me of my pain? Can't you spare me of my tears? Oh, Uncle Joe, Uncle Joe Uncle Joe, Uncle Joe And suicide's intentional when I spin in your fear I am over-influenced by movies And you should've gone to the fear To my hope, the darkest hope Did you know? Lies become the sky That's all gone to the fear To my hope, the darkest hope Do you know? Lies become the sky