

Walk All Over You

Red House Painters

Look out baby I'm runnin' high
Take a chance with me give it a try
Ain't no woman in the world I know
Cause I ain't looking for overflow
Baby I ain't got much
Resistance to your touch
Take off the high heels and let down your hair
Paradise ain't far from there

I'm gonna walk all over you
Walk all over you

Reflections on the bedroom wall
Risin', fallin' you'd seen it all
Risin', fallin' like the sea
You look so good under me

Baby I ain't got much
Resistance to your touch
Take off the high heels and let down your hair
Paradise ain't far from there

I'm gonna walk all over you
Walk all over you
