

Tear Me Up

Red Lorry Yellow Lorry

Waiting for the rain to fall
And I know it's sure gonna fall hard on you

'Cause you tear me up and pick me down
And I take my life with a wretched smile
So I call your name, and I cry out loud
'Cause tomorrow's gone, so I hide my tears

Waiting for the rain to fall
And I know it's sure gonna fall hard on you

All my life, you are there to hold me
Like I hold my tears inside
And you built it up 'til the world's exploding
I can't hide my tears today
