

Someone's Watching

Red Rider

Take it as you find it
Nothing is defined
They all want a piece
Until you've passed your prime

No matter what you say
What you say
Someone's watching you

Try to keep your tracks clean
One eye on the (rear) mirror
Watching the main attraction
It's that time of the year

No matter where you go
Someone's watching you
No... no matter what you say
Someone's watching you

I feel like I've learned before
I feel...
That I won't be the man
At this back door no more
I see...

Bad winds start to blow fear
A big storm is on the rise
Better keep yourself clear
Try to shut your eyes

No matter what they say
(Matter what they say)
Someone's watching you
No matter where you go
(Matter where you go)
Someone's watching you
No... no matter where you go
(Matter where you go)
Someone's watching you
Someone's watching you

Try to
Keep your tracks clean
One eye on the (rear) mirror
Watching... the main attraction
It's that time of year
Oh no... no matter what you say
Someone's watching you
Someone's watching you
