

California Song

Red Wanting Blue

What are these things I see
What are these things I see

Hey, oh
Down in California
Hey, oh
Down in California

Tick, tock
Tick, tock
When's the rain gonna stop
Drip, drop
Drip, drop
Why does this blood continue to drop
Click, clock
Click, clock
Standing on top of the impatient clock
Drip, drop
Drip, drop
Will someone make the rain stop

Hey, oh
Down in California
Hey, oh
Down in California

Red wants blue
And blue wants red
Who wants who
And who is dead
Will someone please take the sheets off my bed
I fear they're growing quite old
And who will walk with you alone
And who will mend the broken throne
Will someone please take her home
I fear she won't come back

Hey, oh
Down in California
Hey, oh
Down in California

Lighthouse, lighthouse
Shine for me
Show me the haven at the end of the sea
Lighthouse, lighthouse
Bring me light
For you are the sun in my evil night

Hey, oh
Down in California
Hey, oh
Down in California
