Love Remains

Red Wanting Blue

The cards are stacked
Against us Dear
And there's no goin' back

Our love remains
Still in tact
But not on track
Oh well...

Don't give up you can keep up keep on moving
Chasing the sound of the sun somewhere going down
I have a lot
But the road royally did annoy
Need my queen to be the king of the vanishing point
I go further out deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains my lighthouse out of sight
Out in the dark no

You keep tabs
Of the good times and the bad
Filing the losses and the gains
I need your hands
Measure the weight of love's demands
Bounce the hope against the pain
For me

Don't give up you can keep up keep on moving
Chasing the sound of the sun somewhere going down
I have a lot
But the road royally did annoy
Need my queen to be the king of the vanishing point
I go further out deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains my lighthouse out of sight
Out in the dark but I'm holding on for life
Don't give up
Holding on for life
Our love remains
Our love remains
Our love remains

Don't give up you can keep up keep on moving
Chasing the sound of the sun somewhere going down
I have a lot
But the road royally did annoy
Need my queen to be the king of the vanishing point
I go further out deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains my lighthouse out of sight
Out in the dark but I'm holding on for life

Don't give up you can keep up keep on moving
Chasing the sound of the sun somewhere going down
I have a lot
But the road royally did annoy
Need my queen to be the king of the vanishing point

I go further out deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains my lighthouse out of sight
Out in the dark but I'm holding on for life
Don't give up

Don't give up
Don't give up
Don't give up you can keep up keep on moving
Don't give up
Don't give up you can keep up keep on moving
```

I go further out deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains my lighthouse out of sight
Out in the dark but I'm holding on for life
Don't give up
