

Crazy 'bout You

Reed Deming

You and me would never ever work
And even if I tried babe I know I'm getting hurt
But I'm still a fool, I'm still crazy 'bout you
You're everything I need but I never say the words
I see you in my dreams and I hear you in my thoughts
I need you in my life like light needs the dark
I think about you and my mind is drifting off
Wanna be in your world, I just wanna get lost

You don't think straight when you're falling in love
You don't think straight when you're falling in love
And it would be a mistake to hold you close
But you're still the one that I need the most
And after all this time

I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you

You're a work of art and I wanna be the brush
But it's the kind of art that I could never touch
You're the kind of heart that I could never love
A flower so pretty that you can't pick it up
We're two different people in two different worlds
And all of this paints got my mind in a swirl
The reds and the blues seem to get mixed up
A victim of myself and a troubled kid in love

You don't think straight when you're falling in love
You don't think straight when you're falling in love
And it would be a mistake to hold you close
But you're still the one that I need the most
And after all this time

I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you

[illegible]

I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you
I'm still, I'm still crazy 'bout you

Do you know I'm crazy 'bout you
Do you know I'm crazy 'bout you
Do you know
Do you know I'm crazy 'bout you
