Cry Wolf

Reed Deming

I'm such a fool
I'm so naive
My foolish hopes
They blinded me
I thought that you'd
Be there for me
But now I see
You'll never be
I thought that you would stay
But I was wrong, wrong, wrong
When I needed you
You were gone, gone, gone
And when the truth hurt
You would lie, lie, lie
And when you got scared
You would cry

Cry wolf
Cry wolf
Cry wolf
Cry wolf

Turn your back and run away
When I needed you to stay
You'd cry wolf
Cry wolf

I needed hope
I needed you
Falling from the sky
Needed a parachute
I thought I had
A friend in you
But when you leave
I never do
I thought that you would stay
But I was wrong, wrong, wrong
When I needed you
You were gone, gone, gone
And when the truth hurt
You would lie, lie, lie
And when you got scared
You would cry

Cry wolf
Cry wolf
Cry wolf
Cry wolf

Turn your back and run away
Cry wolf

Backs against the wall
And you chose to back down
Gave it all I had

But you left without a sound
I put my faith in you
But you threw it all away
I heard you cry wolf
But the wolf never came

Backs against the wall
And you chose to back down
Gave it all I had
But you left without a sound
I put my faith in you
But you threw it all away
I heard you cry wolf

Cry wolf
Cry wolf
Cry wolf
Cry wolf

Turn your back and run away
You'd cry wolf
Cry wolf
