

Until I Know

Reed Deming

Let me tell y'all a story, listen

I was laying low
Happy on my own
Then she pulled up looking like "ooh"!
She's so good with people
And she loves Jesus?!
I'm still really tryna play it cool, listen
And she got her queen on
Driving in her Nissan
Shoulder she could lean on if she please
I know she don't need me
That's what intrigues me
Got it on her own, oh I know

I'm trying not to blow my shot
Tryna play it cool when it's hot
Trying not to show my cards
But the walls of my heart have been caving
This girl's like the queen of spades
A tall glass of lemonade
I really wanna get this right
So I don't mind waiting

Until I know, until I know
Until I know, until I know
She could be the one, not sure
So I'll be waiting 'til I know
Until I know, until I know
Until I know, until I know
She could be the one, not sure
So I'll be waiting 'til I know
Until I know, until I know
Until I know

Two weeks later
Talking all day when
We should be doing our jobs
We made a handshake
And rehearse on Tuesdays
But somehow it always runs long
She was dropping hints
Of what her dream date is
So I think I might shoot my shot
I feel good about this
Even if my shot bricks
At least I got a really dope song

Trying not to blow my shot
Tryna play it cool when it's hot
Trying not to show my cards but the walls of my heart have been caving
This girl's like the queen of spades
A tall glass of lemonade
I really wanna get this right
So I don't mind waiting, ah na

Until I know, until I know

Until I know, until I know
She could be the one, not sure
So I'll be waiting 'til I know
Until I know, until I know
Until I know, until I know
She could be the one, not sure
So I'll be waiting 'til I know
Until I know, until I know
Until I know

Second that we met she caught my interest
Time to meet the parents, that's a big step
What you expect? I'm tryna do this right
One can only take so many movie nights
As time goes on the more I know, I could see us growing old
Pouring rain, I'll hold you close and kiss you underneath the coat
Smile is so heavenly, girl you bring out the best in me
I bring out the best in you, we should be a recipe (what?)
I promised your pops I'd have you home a quarter to eleven
Girl you're different when you walk into a room, you light it up
You're like the lights on the stadium, girl I could see us making it
You so patient, I could see some babies (whoa!)
Is that too soon? Got me acting a fool
You think about others more than you and passionate too?
Girl you're so beautiful, swear you deserve the world, what can I say?
I know that you're the one, will you meet me halfway?

Until I know, until I know
Until I know, until I know
She could be the one, not sure
So I'll be waiting 'til I know
Until I know, until I know
Until I know, until I know
She could be the one, not sure
So I'll be waiting 'til I know
Until I know, until I know
Until I know
