

Repulsive

Reef

Feeling horny, and just that.
You don't want my love I'll take it back.
Learned a lesson, on my knees.
I don't want your dreaded sympathy.

All I want, all I need. Is some mercy, for me please.
All I want, all I need. Is some mercy, for me please.
Give it up now.

Visions of me that make your face a frown.
You want to change my crooked world around.
What I got, what is in the past.
You're not able to see with just one glance.
Alright.

Feeling horny, and just that.
You don't want my love I'll take it all right back.
Learned a lesson, on my knees.
I don't want your dreaded sympathy, oh no.

All I want, all I need. Is some mercy, for me please.
Give it up now.

Visions of me that make your face a frown.
You want to change my crooked world around.
What I got, what is in the past.
You're not able to see with just one glance.

Visions of me that make your face a frown.
You want to change my crooked world around.
What I got, what is in the past.
You might be able to see if you come down.
Yeah.

Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, yeah.
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, ah yeah.

Hey alright.
She don't want nobody round.
She don't want nobody coming home.
No she doesn't
She don't want nobody round.
She don't want nobody coming home.
She don't want nobody round.

She don't want nobody round.
She don't want nobody coming home, yeah.

And all I ask of you. Is what I'd give for free.
I ask the Lord for mercy.
I'm begging on my knees.
If we're to live to together, for what we hope and pray.
Then we must give each other, a little love to find our way.
Yeah, say yeah.
Come home with me.

I'm feeling horny, oh and just that.
You don't want my love you give it right back.
Do you expect me to say please, beggin' on my knees?
I don't want your dreaded sympathy, oh no.

Visions of me that make your face a frown.
You want to change my crooked world around.
What I got, what is in the past.
You're not able to see with just one glance.
Visions of me that make your face a frown.
You want to change my crooked world around.
What I got, what is in the past.
You're not able to see with just one glance.
