

Maybe Now, Maybe Then

Regine Velasquez

Always in your arms
I have found a home
Some where i would run to
When i feel alone
Always in your smile
I have seen the sun
That have cease to shine
On everyone

Maybe now maybe then
I will surely find a friend
Could it be that all this time
It's you
Maybe now maybe then life will
Be the same again
Take a look at me and you will see

That more than words can say
I still love you so
Please give me the strength
To somehow meant tonight
