

To Reach You

Regine Velasquez

I paint a picture of you in my mind
As I lie awake althrough the night
The anger in my heart had all been gone
Now the morning starts to cry
To reach you I'll fly across the sky
To tell you we belong together
We were ment to stay forever
To reach you and touch you
A cold silence is behind me now
I'd set the pain ,the doubts,the tears outside
I must heal the wounds set my heart
To love you forever is all i desire
To reach you
I'll fly across the sky
To tell you we belong together
We were ment to stay forever
To reach you and touch you
The anger in my heart has long been gone
(to reach you i'd fly across the sky)
And tell you we belong together we belong together
We were ment to stay forever
To reach you and tell you we belong together
We were ment to stay for ever
(flying high above)
To reach you
