

Haunted Mansion

ReinXeed

Now as I open up my eyes to see the moon arise
I feel I'm not alone
The stories they've told, the ghost on the hill
They said he had a friend long before his life would end
But greed came over him
To get what he wants their friendship must end

His life of happiness would end so soon
Into the night he ran away far from the house
Where he ended the life of his friend

Deep inside in this Haunted Mansion his spirit lies
Try to run, you can never hide from the ghost on the hill
Open up your eyes; see him passing by in this
Haunted Mansion

He tried to walk away from his everlasting pain
Of being all alone
Nowhere to go, nowhere to be
One night "One night" he fell asleep

Never to wake up anymore
Now he is bound to his mansion until his eternity end
Deep Inside...
