

The Sky's Alive

Remedy Drive

its dark outside but truth is beautiful its warmth in the night the curse is healed when day breaks colorful what a sight

its coming, i feel the sunrise its coming, its coming down the faded sky is tearing away these fires are not for light the feeble eyes are waiting for day the sky's alive tonight i'll build my home upon this stone even though they threw it out its getting late, i'm going to wait for it the final shout
