The Young Prince And Princess

Renaissance

And you would cause the sun to see your light and then be shame d

You cover darkness with a thousand secret flames with your love Oh my love, oh my love, my love

And I would cause the winds to blow a hundred different days And bring the perfumes of the gardens of the ways of your love Oh my love, oh my love, my love

Crystal and the clay, nights and the day, all on the prince's seal

Eagle of the sky, lion of the earth
This is what the seal is worth, what the seal is worth

Holds all of the dreams of a man Tapestries wishes of man, pictures and visions of man The spirit, the soul of the man

And he would vow to love her For the rest of all his days
