

Waterfall

Renaissance

In this waterfall
A life begins for rivers on their sojourn
Never ends

In this waterfall
The light from people bathing in cool waters
They will send

High in the rainforest there is a sign
Poetry of birds will speak to our minds

Love settles in the wind
Call all the richer dreams
Descending to a stream

In this waterfall
The seeds from flowers falling with each other
Take a bow

In this waterfall
A never-ending story keeps on flowing
Knowing how

High in the rainforest there is a sign
Poetry of birds will speak to our minds

Love settles in the wind
Call all the richer dreams
Descending to a stream

Through a blue sky window
Ceiling of the world
With newly opened eyes

Love settles in the wind
Call all the richer dreams
And all that's ever been
