

Faithful

Rend Collective Experiment

There's no words that You've spoken
That haven't brought hope
No promise You've made
You haven't fulfilled
Faithful Jesus
An offering of praise I bring to You

Such grace that no man
Could ever repay
Patience that outlives
The doubts in my head
Faithful Jesus
An offering of praise I bring to You

Surrounded by gifts of love
You express in life the depth of Your love

Jesus, I will put my hope in You
No idols compare to who You are, all You've given
I live to honour and worship You
Be like a window to who You are, all You've given to me

You're faithful to the end
