

Lost Without Your Love

Renegade Five

I never thought I'd feel so much
Never gonna break the chains
That's holding me back within my heart
When you started to pray for me
I had to lay my eyes on you
From that moment I had to make you mine
Can't you realise
I just need to melt the ice..

This is why I gave my life to you
Love that takes me through the night
Waiting for your words to save me
Without you I'll never survive it
This is how the story goes
I'm lost without your love
There's something in the air tonight
I feel it's coming back to me
To drown in a bottle won't ease the pain
Have to face reality
And make you come back again
I need you to stay here through the dark

Can't you realise
I just need to melt the ice..
This is why I gave my life to you
Love that takes me through the night
Waiting for your words to save me
Without you I'll never survive it
This is how the story goes
I'm lost without your love

I got fear for tomorrow
I'm falling under..
That you'd leave without me knowing
I'd never surrender.
Don't wanna be the last to know
Depending on your will to stay forever...

Forever
This is why

This is why I gave my life to you
Love that takes me through the night
Waiting for your words to save me
Without you I'll never survive it
This is how the story goes
I'm lost without your love
