

Stand

Reuben Morgan

Take my heart, take my whole life, Lord
I am Yours, everything to be for You an offering

I stand in You alone
My hope is in no other name
I trust in what I can't see
Though the storms are raging, I stand in You alone

In this world, for me to live is Christ
To see Your face, I know is life
So I will live to worship You

I surrender all
I surrender all to You
