

The Fear

Reuben Morgan

Peace is falling to fill my emptiness
The walls are shaking
I call your name search me again
Lord your mercy never fails me
Hallelujah

Still you love me
You love me and I'll never be the same
Hallelujah
You have set me free and I walk before the fear

Song cannot convey, No words can say
All the praise that you deserve
I give my life my everything and eternity

To sing
Hallelujah

Still you love me
You love me and I'll never be the same
Hallelujah
You have set me free and I walk before the fear

Still you gave your only Son for me
And set this sinner free
Now you love me
Like your only son
And taught my heart to fear

Still you love
You love me and I'll never be the same
Hallelujah you have set me free and I walk before the fear
I walk with You the fear
I am humbled by the fear
