

Crumbling Imperium

Revocation

Dominion spread to thin
Leaders becoming madmen
Means to an end
Pendulum swings again

A certainty
One day what is will not be
A world of entropy
Unraveling society

Trepidation fractures the core
Violent upheaval on the brink of a civil war

Crumbling imperium
All Empires fall in time
Crumbling imperium
Advent of our demise

Castles of sand
Scattered to the wind
Empty hourglass
A new age to begin
Foolhardy kings
Drunk with power
Fallen republic
Spiraling downwards

[Solo: Gargiulo, Davidson]

Civilization in ruins
A world left smoldering
Havoc and terror afflicting all
Downward we spiral, bedlam ensues
Flames growing higher
Witness the empires fall
