

Highway Sunrise

Rhett Akins

There's somethin' pulling' on me
Out of nowhere like a mystery
And I won't find it here in my backyard
So I'm gonna go and I don't care how far
Drivin' through the night wherever it goes

By the mornin' light I'll be down that road
Where a heart can see and the headlights know
Where the night ends and the dawn begins to glow

Yeah, it's a healin' time it's a moment of truth
When all your fears come
Crashin' through to the other side
Where you play your mind and let go
'Cause nothin' can dry your eyes
Like a highway sunrise

Wheels turnin' in my mind
Tail-lights dancin' in my eyes
And there's no horizon just a fade to black
And I'll be breakin' through with my foot on the gas
Somewhere I've never been is leadin' me on

By the mornin' light I'll be down that road
Where a heart can see and the headlights know
Where the night ends and the dawn begins to glow

Yeah, it's healin' time it's a moment of truth
When all your fears come
Crashin' through to the other side
Where you play your mind and let go
'Cause nothin' can dry your eyes
Like a highway sunrise

Somewhere I've never been is leadin' me on
By the mornin' light I'll be down that road
Where a heart can see and the headlights know
Where the night ends and the dawn begins to glow

Yeah, it's a healin' time it's a moment of truth
When all your fears come
Crashin' through to the other side
Where you play your mind and let go
'Cause nothin' can dry your eyes
Like a highway sunrise

Like a highway sunrise
Chase down a highway sunrise
