

Sweet Dreams

Miller, Rhett

Sweet dreams, al I can say is sweet dreams
Everything is sweeter than it sometimes seems
All I can say is sweet dreams

Sweetheart, you don't belong to my heart
But so long as life forces us apart
I'll dream of you, sweetheart

We met on Friday night I'll never forget
The details are fuzzy, they haven't faded yet
I might never forget

Although it's nothing, nothing is what it seems
But for now all I can say is sweet dreams
La-la-la-la-la, sweet dreams, ah yeah

Good night, I long to kiss you good night
If there is a shift in the time-space continuum, I might
'Til then, good night

Although it's nothing, baby, nothing's what it seems Although its futile, please include me in your schemes
But for now, all I can say is sweet dreams, sweet dreams, sweet dreams, sweet dreams
La-la-la-la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la-la-la-la...
