

She Rides

Rhino Bucket

Her life is oh so boring, she needed something new
She saw her children's future, and by then she just knew
She left one summer midnight, she never said good-bye
They only want to see her, only want to know
Why, she rides
His life was never easy, it seemed that he was stuck
When she came in that evening, he tried to change his luck
Her face was like a memory, he kept up his disguise
And when she left next morning, he didn't wonder why
She rides, she rides
Everybody wants to know the reasons why she rides
Somewhere in Arizona, they thought they found her there
The children tried to phone her, but there's no answer
dear
He kept a picture of her, it's on his bedroom wall
He keeps a phone beside him
Just in case she call and when she call he'll know
Why she rides
Everybody wants to know the reasons why
She rides
