

Crazy What A Lonely Heart Will Do

Rhonda Vincent

Take the blame off of me
Put it on my lonely heart
Guilty of still loving you
Cause you left it all alone
Its been looking for a home
And its crazy what a lonely heart will do

Like running to open arms like a love starved child
Holding on to the memory of you
Trying to ease the pain by running wild
Ain't it crazy what a lonely heart will do

So don't look down on me
With those eyes that I love
Only to show you disapprove
'Cause I'm doing my best
It takes a lot to forget
And its crazy what a lonely heart will do

Like running to open arms like a love starved child
Holding on to the memory of you
Trying to ease the pain by running wild
Ain't it crazy what a lonely heart will do

Yeah its crazy what a lonely heart will do