

Lonely Place

Rhys Lewis

You were my comfort all through the sleepless nights
But now you're a shadow sleepin' there by my side
I guess we took it for granted, love's just a habit these days
Have we run out of reasons, run out of reasons to stay?

'Cause, ooh, I feel the same as you
In this lonely place
Ooh, I feel the same as you
In this lonely place

I don't recognize you, it's funny how faces change
'Cause you're close to cryin' whenever you hold my gaze
And I see the reflection of something we're too scared to say
That we've run out of reasons, run out of reasons to stay

'Cause, ooh, I feel the same as you
In this lonely place
Ooh, I feel the same as you
In this lonely place

This lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place
This lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place
Have we run out of reasons, reasons to stay?
In this lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place

I guess we took it for granted, love's just a habit these days
And we've run out of reasons, run out of reasons to stay

In this lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place
This lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place
Have we run out of reasons, reasons to stay?
In this lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place
This lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place
This lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place
This lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely place