Intro To Higher Education And The Book Of Love

Rich Mullins

What does it mean to be human? What does it mean to be human? I cannot help but suspect that at one time in the history of thinking th at people believed that it meant that we were spiritual and that we could make choices and were capable of aspiring to higher ideals... like m aybe loyalty or maybe faith... or maybe even love. But now we told b y people who think they know, that we vary from amoeba only in the compl exity of our makeup and not in what we essentially are. They would have us think as Dysart said that we are forever bound up in certain genetic reigns that we are merely products of the way things are and not free - not free to be the people who make them that way. They would have u s see ourselves as products so that we could believe that we were som ething to be made - something to be used and then something to be dispose d of. Used in their wars - used for their gains and then set aside wh en we get in their way. Well, who are they? They are the few who sit at t he top of the heap - dung heap though it is - and who say it is better to reign in Hell than to serve in Heaven. Well, I do not know that we can h ave a Heaven here on earth, but I am sure we need not have a Hell eit her. What does it mean to be human? I cannot help but believe that it mea ns we are spiritual - that we are responsible and that we are free - that we are responsible to be free.
