God of love and God of promise God of wisdom, power and might God of strength and God of refuge God of knowledge, God of might

Lord we thank you for your promise For we know that it is true In your Word there, is no failure There is no one, none like you

Glory, glory! Hallelujah! For we know your Word is true Glory glory, Hallelujah There is no one, none like You.

No one, there is none like you No one, there is none like yo-oou

We're just waiting on your promise Standing, waiting on your promise
