

A Woman & a Man

Richie Kotzen

The light is dime, her pulse is racing
Her eyes meet his, no need for spoken words
The night is young, people are laughing
And in the corner a new love is happening

Everyone wants one thing money can't buy
Love won't come from working your day job
And no criminal or rich man can beg, steal or borrow
The love between a woman and a man

He takes her hand as they dance to their song
She whispers to him "I been waited so long "

Everyone wants one thing money can't buy
Love won't come from working your day job
And no criminal or rich man can beg, steal or borrow
The love between a woman and a man

There's nothing true love won't bring you
Two hearts as one is what we're craving
To make it baby

Everyone wants one thing money can't buy
Love won't come from working your day job
And no criminal or rich man can beg, steal or borrow
The love between a woman and a man

Everyone wants one thing money can't buy
Love won't come from working your day job
And no criminal or rich man can beg, steal or borrow
The love between a woman and a man
