

Am I Dreamin

Richie Kotzen

I woke up suddenly and everything around me changed and I'm not quite sure where I am it used to feel like such a struggle opening my eyes now I can I can see for miles what did I do what did I change why is everything so clear I've got all I ask for without even thinking have I been dreaming or is it for real because I feel like I can fly above it all am I dreaming because everything's surreal and I feel like I can rise above it all

I'm sleeping in the same bed I've been sleeping in for years there's nothing new inside my room I've been walking in the same old shoes my soul is worn but I feel fine I still got what's mine what did I do I didn't change but I'm suddenly ok I can look in the mirror

because I feel like I can fly above it all
am I dreaming because everything's surreal
and I feel like I can rise above it all

I have been waiting for it for all my life I don't know what to call it but I feel fine
