

Angie

Richie Kotzen

There's a girl I know, wants to be happy and there's a place I go where every one knows her name
Now she got a love for me, and that's why I go O' girl I trip on you
She said "what's your fantasy
I'll be what you want me to be"
Black or white, day or night
you make everything alright
So Angie, don't be afraid to call on me
I need your sunshine
Angie, don't be afraid to call on me
I need your sunshine

There's a man I know, who wants to be happy
So happy
And every where he goes, the story is still the same
Now he got a lover, and feels good
O' girl I'll sick for you
She said "what's your fantasy
I'll be what you want me to be"
Black or white, day or night
you make everything alright

So Angie, don't be afraid to call on me
I need your sunshine
Angie, don't be afraid to call on me
I need your sunshine
I need your sweet sunshine
