

Breakdown

Richie Kotzen

I'm walkin' blind through a mountain, slip through a crack in the sky

I'm chasin' stars on a moon beam, some people can't even fly she's livin' life for the moment, stating a case that is real still unaffected by most men, the kinda heart you can't steal she won't be lonely...

Break down to the bone

Break down is a mental emotion

Break down to your soul

Worlds is turnin' it feels like we're out of control

I'm tied down I can feel it, the weight is heavy I know but in the end I will be there, ain't no place I can't go I won't be lonely...

Break down to the bone

Break down is a mental emotion

Break down to your soul

Worlds is turnin' it feels like we're out of control
