

Divine Power

Richie Kotzen

I'm low and get lower
The par keeps getting higher
I am pieces of me
I drive 'em to the light
Playing chicken
And I sell thine, mmh

I won't be the liar
Won't be the liar that kills the lion
That tore to pieces this dude
You know that I wanna rise
But I'm on the fall
So I'll let you beat me a little more
Till I'm unbroken
'Cause I'm still broken

[?] I'm gonna leave all this bullshit
Up to divine power
Knowing we all spin the wheel
Me and my footprint
Know the sorrow that follows
Break up my skin and spin the wheel

Your bar keeps getting lower
The pipe keeps getting higher
I've got light years on you
I can fight into your eyes
You play Jesus
And I survive, mmh

I wanna build a fire
I wanna build a fire that burns the liars
That speak to me and you
You know that I wanna rise up and on the floor
[?] smoke a little more
I've been hopeless
I am not alone

[?] I'm gonna leave all this bullshit
Up to divine power
Knowing we all spin the wheel
Me and my footprint
Know the sorrow that follows
Break up my skin and spin the wheel

[?] I'm gonna leave all this bullshit
Up to divine power
Knowing we all spin the wheel
Me and my footprint
Know the sorrow that follows
Break up my skin and spin the wheel
