Everything Good

Richie Kotzen

(Words And Music Written By Richie Kotzen)

Why Can't I see It I keep falling off the track
I've been losing what I have by dusting lines
Why does it feel like I'm just fighting off the past
I keep reaching for the glass
I don't know, I don't know…

Why is everything good so bad for me
Why does everything right go wrong
I'll never know why until I finally wake up
Why does everything good turn bad on me
I keep thinking I can find a way back but I can't rewind
I guess I'd better wake up

I still remember when my lips first touched your hand
The butterflies began to fly in me
But I don't remember how something beautiful could pass
And go away so far so fast
I don't know, I don't know…

Why everything good is so bad for me
Why everything right goes wrong
I'll never know why until I finally wake up… tell me, tell me…
Why everything good turns bad on me
I keep thinking I can find a way back but I can't rewind
I guess I'd better wake up
Won't you come and wake me up….

I think that I finally see….
Why everything good is so bad for me
Why everything right goes wrong
I'll never know why until I finally wake up…
Won't you come wake me up and tell me why…
Why everything good turns bad on me
I keep thinking I can find a way back but I can't rewind
I guess I'd better wake up
Won't you come and wake me up

Why is everything good so bad for me
Every time I straighten up I just feel like I'm being let down
But I'm turning around.
