

No Reason

Richie Kotzen

Here we are caught in this place
So much to lose and so much to gain
I try to do the right thing
But I still can't find the way
And that's a shame... we're all pawns in the game
I worked all my years to come to this place

Unlock your fear you know that time won't wait
I gave up askin why cause I got no reason,
Ain't no use wantin more, we just stand and fall Ain't no reason...

I have a dream that has not come to pass
Still I wonder will I ever get a chance
If time can heal a burnt soul
Than it sure can kill you see
And that's too bad, That's the way its gotta be I traveled far to find and still can't see

Unlock your fear you know that time won't wait
I gave up askin why cause I got no reason,
Ain't no use wantin more, we just stand and fall Ain't no reason...

Still has not come to pass...
Everything you ask for, what's it really all mean?
you don't know what you want child, or what you wanna be you dont know what you need girl you sure look a lot from me...

I tried so hard to make some sense of this
I guess all you can do this live it while your here

Unlock your fear you know that time won't wait
I gave up askin why cause I got no reason,
Live for your dreams its the one thing you can do
Ain't no use wantin more, we just stand and fall (ain't got a reason)
Unlock your fear you know that time won't wait (and I dont wann a wait)
I gave up askin why cause I got no reason Ain't no use wantin more, it aint yours to ask for,
we just stand and fall
Ain't no reason... Ain't no reason...
I don't know what you want done baby.
I don't know what you need, ain't no reason...
