

The Enemy

Richie Kotzen

I'm over blaming I own everything I'm the monster I must face
I miss the touch I miss so much I'm missing something that I can't replace

And if you doubt or feel left out
You should know I feel your pain
I am the clown who ripped off his crown and no one can see

I'm living with the enemy
It's someone deep inside of me
I'm nothing that I want to be
Correct my course I'm ready so ready so ready

Rainbows acting drunk were acting love there's something wrong
it's in the sky
So when it's done we better run this shit ain't nothing we can test or try
And if you doubt or feel left out you should know you're not to blame
This is your out to spit me out I'm the one I can't escape

I'm living with the enemy
It's someone deep inside of me
I'm nothing that I want to be
Correct my course I'm ready so ready so ready
Damn what you've done to me
So wicked with the subtlety
And I can't even stand my ground
Correct my course I'm ready so ready so ready
