The Feelin's Gone

Richie Kotzen

I woke up to the sound of cryin' woman said she's gonna leave She told me that I gave up tryin' and that's too but for me

I don't want to believe
the feelin''s gone
It's too hard to see what went wrong
And I can't believe the feeelin's gone away from me

I take a look in the mirror there's nothin' much there to me As time goes by things are clearer but I still can't see what it all means I don't want to believe the feelin''s gone It's too hard to see what went wrong And I can't believe the feeelin's gone away from me
