

You Don't Owe Me

Richie Kotzen

You came to me with nothin' boy, I turned you into something now you're flying Walked right out of nowhere now you're standing right in front and I can't touch it There's no shame in your life,
there's no faith in mine

You don't owe me,
Life turns in circles
You can't show me,
I know what you are

You burned up in your attitude, I saw you from down here and now your falling Run right up to talk to me, before you wouldn't dare now I can't hear it
There's no shame in your life,
There's no faith in mine

You don't owe me,
Life turns in circles
You can't show me,
I know what you are
