

Pink's Song

Rick Wright

Quiet, smiling friend of mine
Thrown into our lives
You gave everything you could
Saw through our disguise
I had to stay I could not leave
Give me time so I can breathe
Give me time to be at ease
Patiently, you watched us play
Parts you'd seen before
Even then, we sometimes asked
What you keep us for
Caught between the tangled web
You helped set us free
Sadly, then, you lost yourself
So you had to leave
And I must go, be on my way
Let me go, I can not stay
Let me go, I must not stay
And I must go, be on my way
Let me go, I cannot stay
Let me go, I must not stay
